1 Introduction

This document tells you what you need to do to deliver the qualifications:

Area	Description
Who are the qualifications for?	The assessment and quality assurance qualifications will be part of an integrated suite of TAQA qualifications for training, assessment and quality assurance practitioners. These qualifications are for people working in, or looking to enter, roles in assessment and internal quality assurance. They are designed for use in England, Wales and Northern Ireland – alternative arrangements exist in Scotland.
What do the qualifications cover?	These qualifications represent a real step change in the approach to qualifications for assessment and quality assurance; for the first time, knowledge is formally recognised as the basis for sound performance through the mandatory inclusion of a knowledge or theory unit in all the qualifications. The City & Guilds term for these units is the ‘TAQA’ qualifications: T...raining A...ssessment Q...uality A...ssurance
What opportunities for progression are there?	These units have been designed to be achieved individually or as qualifications. The ‘Understanding the Principles....’ Units are knowledge-only so may be undertaken by anyone interested in the underlying principles and practices of assessment and quality assurance without having to be a practitioner. However, as these units then appear in each of the subsequent qualifications it is possible (when the learner’s job role allows) to move on from the ‘Principles’ units into practice and therefore achieve the ‘applied or ‘competence-based’ units. There is a progression route through these qualifications, but it is not mandatory that they are done in any order – unless this is required by the assessment strategy for the qualification that the candidate assessor or candidate Internal Quality Assurer (IQA) may be

	using to achieve their units. For example, in some sectors it is not compulsory to be an assessor before being an IQA. So, a candidate could do the IQA qualification without doing any of the assessment ones first. Therefore centres must carry out in-depth initial assessment and guide candidates to undertake the most appropriate units or qualification for their particular role and situation at that time. These qualifications relate to and are designed to complement the following qualifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 7303 Levels 3 and 4 Award in Preparing to Teach in the Lifelong Learning Sector (PTLLS) • 7304 Levels 3 and 4 Certificate to Teach in the Lifelong Learning Sector (CTLLS) • 7305 Level 5 Diplomas in Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector (DTLLS) There are opportunities
Who did we develop the qualifications with?	They have been developed by LLUK to replace the Assessor and Verifier (A&V) Units.

Total Qualification Time (TQT)

Total Qualification Time (TQT) is the number of notional hours which represents an estimate of the total amount of time that could reasonably be expected for a learner to demonstrate the achievement of the level of attainment necessary for the award of a qualification.

TQT consists of the following two elements:

- 1) the number of hours that an awarding organisation has assigned to a qualification for guided learning
- 2) an estimate of the number of hours a learner will reasonably be likely to spend in preparation, study or any other form of participation in education or training, including assessment, which takes place as directed by – but, unlike guided learning, not under the immediate guidance or supervision of – a lecturer, supervisor, tutor or other appropriate provider of education or training.

2 Centre requirements

Approval

Full approval

To offer these qualifications, new centres will need to gain both centre and qualification approval. Please refer to the document Centre Approval Process: Quality Assurance Standards for further information.

Centre staff should familiarise themselves with the structure, content and assessment requirements of the qualification before designing a course programme.

Automatic approval

If your centre is approved to offer existing 7317 units, you will be automatically approved to offer 6317 units. Please refer to the document Centre Approval Process: Quality Assurance Standards for further information.

Centre staff should familiarise themselves with the structure, content and assessment requirements of the qualification before designing a course programme.

Resource requirements

Centre staffing

City & Guilds expects that these qualifications will be delivered by highly skilled practitioners of learning delivery, assessment and quality assurance.

Practitioners involved in the delivery of these qualifications should be able to fulfil all of the following functions to ensure a quality learning experience for the learner:

- identify training and development needs of the learner
- plan for, design and develop learning and development opportunities
- provide high quality learning opportunities
- facilitate and support learner progress and achievements
- assess learner performance
- review the effectiveness of learning opportunities
- contribute to the quality assurance process

Therefore, for all the assessor and internal quality assurance qualifications, it is required that practitioners are:

- skilled, knowledgeable and experienced in learning delivery, assessment and quality assurance
- able to demonstrate good practice in accordance with the NOS for Learning and Development and/or the relevant Professional Standards
- show current evidence of continuing professional development and practice in assessment and quality assurance

In accordance with the guidance provided by Lifelong Learning UK (LLUK) as to who can deliver these assessment and internal quality assurance qualifications, for the knowledge only units – wherever they appear in the qualifications but in particular:

- Level 3 Award in Understanding the Principles and Practices of Assessment
- Level 4 Award in Understanding the Internal Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practice

City & Guilds expects the following:

- practitioners will hold a relevant assessor and/or quality assurance qualification (or recognised equivalent) for example:
 - Level 3 Award in Assessing Vocationally Related Achievement, or
 - Level 3 Certificate in Assessing Vocational Achievement, or
 - A1 Assess candidate performance using a range of methods, or
 - D32 Assess candidate performance and D33 Assess candidate using differing sources of evidence
 - Level 4 Award in the Internal Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practice, or
 - Level 4 Certificate in Leading the Internal Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practice, or
 - V1 Conduct internal quality assurance of the assessment process, or
 - D34 Internally verify the assessment process
- and/or have up-to-date working knowledge and experience of best practice in assessment/quality assurance.

For the delivery of the applied units (ie where candidates have to be carrying out the role):

- Unit 2 Assess Occupational Competence in the Work Environment
- Unit 3 Assess Vocational Skills Knowledge and Understanding practitioners must

- hold one of the following qualifications (or their recognised equivalent)
 - Level 3 Award in Assessing Competence in the Work Environment, or
 - Level 3 Certificate in Assessing Vocational Achievement, or
 - A1 Assess candidate performance using a range of methods, or
 - D32 Assess candidate performance and D33 Assess candidate using differing sources of evidence
- and have up-to-date working knowledge and experience of best practice in assessment.

For the delivery of the applied internal quality assurance units (ie where candidates have to be carrying out the role):

- Unit 5 Internally assure the quality of assessment
- Unit 8 Plan allocate and monitor work in own area of responsibility

Practitioners must hold one of the above assessor qualifications and one of the following internal quality assurance qualifications:

- Level 4 Award in the Internal Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practice or
- Level 4 Certificate in Leading the Internal Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practice, or
- V1 Conduct internal quality assurance of the assessment process, or
- D34 Internally verify the assessment process.
- and have up-to-date working knowledge and experience of best practice in assessment and internal quality assurance.

In addition, practitioners assessing and internally quality assuring Unit 403 /703 must also demonstrate that they:

- have credible expertise in management and leadership relevant to the level(s)/units they
- are assessing or verifying.
- keep themselves up-to-date with developments in management and leadership practice;
- have a thorough understanding of the NOS for management and leadership at the
- unit(s)/level(s)they are assessing or verifying.

Plus they must have:

- An accredited assessor and/or verifier qualification, or
- A related qualification in assessment and/or verification that has been mapped to the
- National Occupational Standards for assessment and/or verifications, or
- Evidence of undertaking an employer assessment programme that has been mapped to
- The National Occupational Standards for assessment and/or verification.

This flexibility is to encourage centres to use high quality learning and development practitioners where possible, not only qualified assessors/quality assurance personnel.

To complement this flexibility, City & Guilds will work with centres and practitioners to offer appropriate professional development opportunities to ensure standards can be maintained and that a more qualified and skilled workforce can be developed for these new qualifications.

In addition, practitioners delivering these qualifications must meet the statutory and contractual arrangements of the nation in which they work

Continuing professional development (CPD)

Centres are expected to support their staff in ensuring that their knowledge remains current of the occupational area and of best practice in delivery, mentoring, training, assessment and quality assurance, and that it takes account of any national or legislative developments.

Quality assurance

Approved centres must have effective quality assurance systems to ensure optimum delivery and assessment of qualifications. Quality assurance includes initial centre approval, qualification approval and the centre's own internal procedures for monitoring quality. Centres are responsible for internal quality assurance and City & Guilds is responsible for external quality assurance. All external quality assurance processes reflect the minimum requirements for verified and moderated assessments, as detailed in the Centre Assessment Standards Scrutiny (CASS), section H2 of Ofqual's General Conditions. For more information on both CASS and City & Guilds Quality Assurance processes visit: the What is CASS? and Quality Assurance Standards documents on the City & Guilds website.

Standards and rigorous quality assurance are maintained by the use of:

- Internal quality assurance
- City & Guilds external quality assurance.

In order to carry out the quality assurance role, Internal Quality Assurers must

- have appropriate teaching and vocational knowledge and expertise
- have experience in quality management/internal quality assurance
- hold or be working towards an appropriate teaching/training/assessing qualification
- be familiar with the occupation and technical content covered within the qualification.

External quality assurance for the qualification will be provided by City & Guilds EQA process. EQAs are appointed by City & Guilds to approve centres, and to monitor the assessment and internal quality assurance carried out by centres. External quality assurance is carried out to ensure that assessment is valid and reliable, and that there is good assessment practice in centres.

The role of the EQA is to:

- provide advice and support to centre staff
- ensure the quality and consistency of assessments and marking/grading within and between centres by the use of systematic sampling
- provide feedback to centres and to City & Guilds.

Learner entry requirements

City & Guilds does not set entry requirements for these qualifications. However, centres must ensure that candidates have the potential and opportunity to gain the qualification successfully.

Anyone engaged in assessing and quality assuring other units or qualifications must meet the specific requirements of the assessment strategy related to those units and qualifications.

Age restrictions

This qualification is approved for learners aged 18 or above.

There are no age limits attached to candidates undertaking the qualifications unless this is a legal requirement of the process or the environment in which they operate.

Access arrangements and reasonable adjustments

City & Guilds has considered the design of these qualifications and its assessments in order to best support accessibility and inclusion for all learners. We understand however that individuals have diverse learning needs and may require reasonable adjustments to fully participate. Reasonable adjustments, such as additional time or alternative formats, may be provided to accommodate learners with disabilities and support fair access to assessment.

Access arrangements are adjustments that allow candidates with disabilities, special educational needs, and temporary injuries to access the assessment and demonstrate their skills and knowledge without changing the demands of the assessment. These arrangements must be made before assessment takes place.

The Equality Act 2010 requires City & Guilds to make reasonable adjustments where a disabled person would be at a substantial disadvantage in undertaking an assessment.

It is the responsibility of the centre to ensure at the start of a programme of learning that candidates will be able to access the requirements of the qualification.

Please refer to the JCQ access arrangements and reasonable adjustments and Access arrangements - when and how applications need to be made to City & Guilds for more information. Both are available on the City & Guilds website

3 Delivering the qualification

Initial assessment and induction

An initial assessment of each learner should be made before the start of their programme to identify:

- if the learner has any specific training needs
- support and guidance they may need when working towards their qualifications
- any units they have already completed or credit they have accumulated which is relevant to the qualification
- the appropriate type and level of qualification.

We recommend that centres provide an induction programme so the learner fully understands the requirements of the qualifications, their responsibilities as a learner and the responsibilities of the centre. This information can be recorded on a learning contract.

Inclusion and diversity

City & Guilds is committed to improving inclusion and diversity within the way we work and how we deliver our purpose which is to help people and organisations develop the skills they need for growth.

More information and guidance to support centres in supporting inclusion and diversity through the delivery of City & Guilds qualifications can be found here:

Inclusion and diversity | City & Guilds \(cityandguilds.com\)

Sustainability

City & Guilds are committed to net zero. Our ambition is to reduce our carbon emissions by at least 50% before 2030 and develop environmentally responsible operations to achieve net zero by 2040 or sooner if we can. City & Guilds is committed to supporting qualifications that support our customers to consider sustainability and their environmental footprint.

More information and guidance to support centres in developing sustainable practices through the delivery of City & Guilds qualifications can be found here:

Our Pathway to Net Zero | City & Guilds \(cityandguilds.com\)

Centres should consider their own carbon footprint when delivering this qualification and consider reasonable and practical ways of delivering this qualification with sustainability in mind. This could include:

- reviewing purchasing and procurement processes (such as buying in bulk to reduce the amount of travel time and energy, considering and investing in the use of components that can be reused, instead of the use of disposable or single use consumables)
- reusing components wherever possible
- waste procedures (ensuring that waste is minimised, recycling of components is in place wherever possible)
- minimising water use and considering options for reuse/salvage as part of plumbing activities wherever possible.

4 Assessment

Assessment of the qualification

Different units in these qualifications will include different assessment requirements and methods – all of which will be familiar to existing assessors and quality assurance staff.

For the unit where competence is being assessed methods will include:

- observation of performance in the work environment by an assessor or witness
- examining products of the learner's own work
- questioning the learner
- discussions with the learner
- use of others (witness testimony)
- looking at learner statements
- recognition of prior learning

For the units where knowledge and skills in vocationally related subject areas are being assessed methods will also include:

- oral and written questions
- assignments
- projects
- case studies
- recognition of prior learning

Evidence for practical activities should be gathered from naturally occurring evidence collected in the work-related environment.

Evidence for the knowledge-only units such as assignments, case studies, project etc must follow City & Guilds guidelines and be agreed in advance with the External Quality Assurer (EQA).

General assessment guidance

There must be valid, authentic and sufficient evidence for all the assessment criteria. However, there is no requirement for each unit, learning outcome or assessment criteria to be assessed separately. It is recommended that holistic assessment is used whenever appropriate. Wherever possible, one activity should be used as evidence for learning outcomes and assessment criteria for other units. For example, a discussion for 'Assess occupational competence in the work environment' might provide some evidence for 'Understanding the principles and practices of assessment'. However, it is essential that evidence for the assessment criteria in each unit is also identified individually.

Recording assessment activities

Recording of assessment decisions and evidence may be undertaken in a range of formats. However regardless of the form of recording used, the guiding principle must be that all information relating to assessment must comply with legal requirements and best practice in the sector. This will include ensuring confidentiality of information which can, however, still be tracked for internal and external verification purposes.

Where candidates have particular needs the evidence may vary, provided that any alternative evidence demonstrates the assessment requirements as identified in the unit.

Evidence Requirements

The evidence requirements for these qualifications are provided on a unit-by-unit basis. These requirements must be met as specified.

Please note - Simulation may only be used in the knowledge-only Units 1 and 4. Simulation is not allowed in any of the other units.

Assessment strategy

City & Guilds has written the following assessments to use with these qualifications:

- assignments that can be downloaded from the City & Guilds website:
 - assessment component 205 is for use with 6317-30/31/32
 - assessment component 401 is for use with 6317-40/41

Portfolio of evidence

Candidate and centres may decide to use a paper-based or electronic method of recording evidence.

City & Guilds endorses several ePortfolio systems, including our own, Learning Assistant, an easy-to-use and secure online tool to support and evidence candidates' progress towards achieving qualifications. Further details are available at www.cityandguilds.com/eportfolios.

City & Guilds has developed a set of recording forms including examples of completed forms for new and existing centres to use as appropriate. Recording forms are available on the City & Guilds website.

Although new centres are expected to use these forms, centres may devise or customise alternative forms, which must be approved for use by the external quality assurers, before they are used by candidates and assessors at the centre. Amendable (MS Word) versions of the forms are available on the City & Guilds website.

Portfolio should not contain training materials, assignments for developing the learner and other information and guidance that formed part of the 'learner journey'. However, many learners want to maintain a personal record of their learning. They can maintain a 'Learning File' containing all the information and materials that chart their development. This 'Learning File' will not, however, form part of the assessment or quality assurance processes – but the learner would have a valuable personal record of their journey and progress.

Evidence sources

A portfolio of evidence will typically include several pieces of evidence – it must contain sufficient evidence to demonstrate the knowledge and skills required for each appropriate unit.

Evidence sources may include:

- training logbooks
- centre-produced worksheets and activities
- annotated photographs
- video clips (maximum duration in total = 10 minutes)
- workplace documentation/records, for example job cards/job sheets, equipment check/maintenance/service records, parts order records.

This is not a definitive list; other evidence sources are permitted.

The evidence provided must be valid and attributable to the candidate; the portfolio of evidence must contain a statement from the centre confirming this.

Evidence must not include:

- any methods of self-assessment

- any employer contributions should focus on direct observation of evidence (for example witness statements) of competence rather than opinions.

More about Portfolios of evidence

Ofqual has long maintained that evidence ‘where it is in paper or material form, can be left in its natural location’ for example the workshop, office or building site. This is a sensible approach as much ‘product’ evidence cannot for a variety of reasons go into a ‘portfolio’ (e.g. a brick wall which has been built, sensitive records from a care home etc.) In the same way, it is not necessary to print off and present paper copies of policies and procedures if those can be left in their usual location and checked by assessors, Internal Quality Assurer (IQA) and External Quality Assurer (EQA) ‘in situ’.

However, if this approach is adopted then the assessment record must state:

- Who and what was assessed and by whom
- The date, and location of assessment
- The assessment methods used
- The assessment decision
- The Units, Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria achieved
- The location of the supporting evidence

One ‘portfolio’ may actually comprise evidence in a number of locations, linked by the audit trail provided through the assessment and quality assurance records.

There are however practical implications to consider:

- if evidence is left in its usual location then the internal and external quality assurers will both have to sample it in its usual location. This will require QA staff to plan for and carry out visits to other premises as part of their sampling
- the QA audit trail still has to be clear, trackable through the evidence and the planned sampling must be carried out as required by the qualification
- it is crucial that the evidence is kept safely in its usual location and is readily available for sampling whenever the external quality assurance sampling takes place. It is the responsibility of the centre to organise this – it is not the responsibility of the External Quality Assurer to have to locate evidence

Time constraints

Centres should be aware of time constraints regarding the registration and certification periods for the qualifications, as specified in the City & Guilds Online Catalogue.

Recognition of prior learning (RPL)

Recognition of prior learning means using a person’s previous experience or qualifications which have already been achieved to contribute to a new qualification.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) recognises the contribution a person’s previous experience could contribute to a qualification. As part of each learner’s initial assessment, any opportunities for RPL will be identified by the relevant assessor.

Claims for credit for units through RPL will be considered in individual cases. Some units in this set of qualifications lend themselves more readily to a claim for credit through RPL than others. Note that the RPL process relates to the production of evidence against ALL the requirements of a particular unit – it is not possible to claim ‘partial credit achievement’ for a unit through RPL.

Where a claim for credit through RPL may be appropriate, a member of the assessment team will explain to the learner in question what the RPL process will involve and how evidence may be produced to substantiate an RPL claim. If, having considered the option of a claim for credit through RPL, a learner decides not to pursue such a claim, he or she is free to do so without further implications.

5 Units

Structure of the units

These units each have the following:

- City & Guilds reference number
- title
- level
- credit value
- general guidance
- evidence guidance
- learning outcomes, which are comprised of a number of assessment criteria

Guidance for delivery of the units

These qualifications comprise a number of units. A unit describes what is expected of a competent person in particular aspects of their job.

Each unit is divided into learning outcomes which describe in further detail the skills and knowledge that a candidate should possess.

Each learning outcome has a set of assessment criteria (performance and knowledge and understanding) which specify the desired criteria that must be satisfied before an individual can be said to have performed to the agreed standard.

General guidance provides guidance of the evidence requirement for the unit and specific guidance on delivery and range statements. Centres are advised to review this information carefully before delivering the unit.

Unit 301/205

Understanding the Principles and Practices of Assessment

Title:	Understanding the Principles and Practices of Assessment
Level:	3

Assess Occupational Competence in the Work Environment

Title:	Assess Occupational Competence in the Work Environment
Level:	3
Credit value:	6
General Guidance This unit assesses a candidate assessor's competence in assessing the occupational competence of others. Primary evidence for the learning outcomes and assessment criteria must come from the candidate assessor assessing two real learners on two occasions in a real work environment against standards/criteria that are approved by the organisation. These standards/criteria may include national occupational standards, components of qualifications or in-house standards. Each assessment must be a substantial but realistic and manageable piece of a learner's work. The unit covers seven assessment methods in total. The candidate assessor must show that they have covered a minimum of three of these assessment methods in their real practice. The candidate assessor is allowed, if necessary, to provide other forms of evidence – for example through a statement or by discussion – to show how they would use the other assessment methods. Evidence from this unit – in the form of statements and discussions – can be used as evidence for the following unit: 301: Understanding the principles and practices of assessment
